

CS 3201N – CS Thesis 1

Angie M. Ceniza-Canillo, PhD
Full Professor, Department of Computer, Information Sciences and Mathematics
School of Arts and Sciences
University of San Carlos

Guidelines for the Powerpoint Presentation

- Title of the Capstone with the proponent's names (1 slide)
- Rationale of the study (1 slide)
- Statement of the Problem (general & specific objectives) (1 slide)
- Significance of the Study (1 slide)
- Scope and Limitations (1 slide)
- Summary of Related Systems (1-2 slides)
- Summary of Technical Background (1-2 slides)
- Design and Methodology (applicable number of slides)
- Software Requirement Specifications (applicable number of slides)

Guidelines of the Powerpoint Presentation

- ▶ Please ensure effective presentation of content:
 - More visual not too wordy
 - Use bulleted list instead of paragraphs so you don't have to be simply reading from the slides
 - Maximum of 30 minutes presentation only

Guidelines of the Powerpoint Presentation

- ▶ TIME ALLOTMENT: total of 30 minutes presentation
- ▶ Presentation Proper :
 - ▶ 30 minutes (maximum)
- ▶ Question and Answer/Interactions & Feed backing :
 - ▶ 30 - 60 minutes

Guidelines for the Powerpoint Presentation

- Wear smart casual or corporate attire during the proposal hearing/defense.
- Follow the presentation guidelines.
- Know your capstone project topic and be able to convince the panel that your topic is worth to research for.
- Be confident.
- Take note of the suggestions or recommendations of the Panelists.
- Submit revised proposal document with your adviser and panelist's approval on or before the deadline.

Proposal Defense Assessment

Oral Examination

(Rubric 4)

(50%)

- individual rating

Documentation

(Rubric 5)

(50%)

- group rating

100%

Thank you for listening. 😊